Unit for microwave therapy

Radarmed 650+ and 950+

The Radarmed 650+ and 950+ are units for continuous and pulsed microwave therapy with a frequency of 2450 MHz (12 cm waves). The options for dosage are based on the warmth sensation of the patient. This is considered a big advantage and also makes microwave a safe therapy. Microwave therapy is simple to apply thanks to the unipolar application. The radiator makes no contact with the patient and is simple, safe and hygienic to apply.

- Continuous or pulsed output
- Effortless transition between continuous and pulsed therapy
- The parameters are conveniently arranged on the illuminated display.
- The parameter settings remain visible on the display during treatment.
- Free memory for the storage of treatment protocols (only on Radarmed 950+)
